OMAHA SENDS 3000 TO AID GEN. KELLY.

LABORING MEN IN A GREAT PROCESSION.

They Unite In a Demand Upon the Railroads For a Train to Send the Industrial Army East—People Are Incensed at the Action of Union Authorities.

OMAHA, April 20—Three thousand laboring men marched through the streets this morning, en route to Council Bluffs to aid Kelly's army, which is still stranded. Though the movement is claimed to be a peaceful one, trouble is feared, as people are justly indignant. The railroads have placed seals on all empty cars passing through the district where the army is located to make it a criminal offense should the men molest them. It is said that Gen. Kelly will order a return march to Council Bluffs in the morning in the hope that if other outlets fail the men can go by water to Kansas City and try there to get transportation east. He has about given up hope of crossing Iowa.

General Manager St. John of the Rock Island arrived in the city last night and after learning the condition of Kelly's men advised President Cable by telegraph to furnish a train to take the men to Chicago. President Cable replied that he would not decide until morning. He expresses warm sympathy for the men and recognizes the fact that if violence is done railroad property will be the first to suffer.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Iowa, April 20.—Kelly's industrial army broke camp at the Chautauqua grounds and began its march. It halted at Weston, nine miles from here, and in a driving rain, which turned to sleet and snow, it camped south of the corn cribs and an elevator on the right of way of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul. There it prepared to spend the night without shelter of any kind except such as the men might get from crawling under the lee of sheds or other buildings or from getting inside the cribs, some of which are empty.

Division Superintendent Goodenow, in his private car, arrived at Weston at the same time as the army. Goodenow at once, when he saw where the camp was to be placed, ordered the men to move off the right of way and made a formal demand of Gen. Kelly that he take his men off the company property. Kelly, for the first time since his arriving here, was a little out of patience. He declared to Goodenow that the men were tired, wet, cold and hungry, and he refused flatly to order them to move. Goodenow wanted Sheriff Hayento to call out the militia and drive the men off, but the sheriff refused. In the present temper of the people of Iowa he acted very wisely.

One of the interesting incidents of the morning was the presentation to Kelly of a fine white horse and saddle by William Boyhan of Council Bluffs. As the army started on its march it was accompanied by large wagons furnished by Council Bluffs citizens. These wagons were loaded down with the provisions of the army and its camp equipments. The rain fell heavily at times. The road was wet and muddy, but the army marched forward at a rapid pace, halting occasionally for the wagons. Weston was reached at 2 o'clock. The army was wet to the skin, and the situation was disheartening. A space for the headquarters and commissary was secured in the public hall, and there the supplies were unloaded. The men were suffering greatly, but as one of them said: "We must take our medicine like men, that's all there is to it."

N. W. Hubbard, attorney for the Northwestern Railway company, has acknowledged that he was responsible for the calling out of the state troops. "If these tramps and bums try to capture one of our trains there will be trouble," said Mr. Hubbard, "and should they gain possession of a train through any hook or crook, or by the sympathies of our trainmen, we will ditch the train if it destroys every car and hurts a lot of men."

Gen. Kelly is opposed to further additions to the army, as the number has now already reached burdensome figures. Two of the soldiers were unable to march yesterday morning, owing to sickness.

The people of Weston at a late hour threw open their doors and provided the army with all the shelter possible. Gov. Jackson says that all the troops have been sent to their homes.

DES MOINES, Iowa, April 20.—At a special meeting of the city council the question of caring for Kelly's army, now en route for this city, was considered. Upon the advice of Mayor Hill it was decided to call upon the people to feed the men and contribute money if necessary to hasten their departure eastward. Gov. Jackson has not yet returned. Sentiment here is distinctly unfavorable to his action in calling out the militia.

PEFFER CHAMPIONS THE ARMIES.

Wants a Special Committee to Listen to the Petitioners.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—Senator Peffer yesterday called up his resolution for the appointment of a committee on communications to receive the petitions of Coxey's army. He explained the object of the resolution as being a preparation for the proper reception of this body of men and to give them every facility to present their grievances to congress. The country, he said, was on the verge of trouble, and, unless we were wise and managed our affairs with discretion, we would regret it in the near future. Senator Allen (pop., Neb.) asserted the perfect right of Coxey and his followers to come to Washington if they chose, and, not only that, but they had a right to come into the capitol and occupy the galleries of the senate, and it would be unwise on the part of the senate to refuse them this privilege. He bitterly denounced the report that Gen. Ordway of the National guard of the District of Columbia was preparing to mobilize the militia at the confines of the District of Columbia.

Senator Cockrell, chairman of the committee on appropriations, gave notice of a speech on the Peffer resolution for to-day. Several senators will discuss the question freely in the debate during the morning hour. The opinion is expressed that in view of the precedents and the emergency likely to arise, President Cleveland would be justified in issuing a proclamation warning the men now on their way to the city that the authorities will be prepared to require the strictest observance of order. The opinion was expressed that congress should not do anything looking to the sustenance of the Coxey army while here.

Montana Army Seizes a Train.

BUTTE, Mont., April 20.—The Butte contingent of the Coxey army, 500 strong, started on its march to Washington yesterday. A mile east of the city it captured an east-bound Northern Pacific freight train consisting of five cars and a caboose. The engineer ran the train back to the yards and Sheriff Renolds and a crowd of deputies took the engine from the control of the soldiers. Negotiations are now pending between the local agent here and the officials of the road at St. Paul for a special train to carry the men east. Only one arrest was made by the sheriff.

Grayson's Command at a Standstill.

DENVER, Colo., Hpril 20.—Grayson and his Colorado contingent remained at Barre, Colo., eighteen miles from here all night, The men were exposed to the severe weather and many are sick. Deserters have reduced the number to about 100. The men have written to Gov. Waite asking him to provide three box cars for transportation to Omaha, and to-day will march to Hudion, where they hope to find the request granted.

Organizing the Hoosier Recruits.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 20.—Col. Aubrey and Lieut. Salisbury of Gen. Frye's army, from Los Angeles, were greeted by 1,000 men at the meetiug to organize an Indianapolis branch of Coxey's army. A collection was taken up and the work of formally enlisting was begun.

Frye's Army Advances.

CASEY, Ill., April 20.—Gen. Frye's industrial army, numbering 188 men, came into this city last evening. The advance guard came in the morning and secured money and provisions. They are in camp within the city limits, and all seemingly are in the best of spirits.

BASEBALL SEASON OPENS.

Scores of Games Played in the National League Yesterday.

The nineteenth season of the National league began yesterday, to end Sept. 30. But four of the six games were played, Boston, St. Louis, Baltimore and Washington winning. The Cincinnati-Chicago and Louisville-Cleveland games were postponed on account of rain. The conditions were favorable and the reports indicate that with good management and reasonable luck the National league managers will have a prosperous season. Following are the scores of the games played:

At Boston:

Boston	0	0	1	5	1	0	2	4	*	—13
Brooklyn	0	0	0	0	1	0	0	1	0	—2

At St. Louis:

St. Louis	0	2	2	0	2	0	2	0	3	—11
Pittsburg	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	0	2	—3

At Washington:

Washington	0	0	0	0	0	1	0	1	2	—4
Philadelphia	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	0	1	—2

At Baltimore:

New York	0	0	0	0	1	0	0	2	0	—3

Maney On the Stand.

CHICAGO, April 20.—After some unimportant testimony in the trial of Lieut. Maney for the murder of Capt. Hedberg yesterday the prisoner himself took the witness stand. He endeavored to show that Hedberg was a violent man and had taken a dislike to him. He proved that on several occasions Hedberg had threatened to shoot him, and that he felt in danger of his life. Hedberg had been abusive to him on several occasions. At the afternoon session the examination of Lieut. Maney was continued. He told of several meetings with Capt. Hedberg, at which sharp language was used, and said that he tried to avoid him after that in order to have no trouble. The case proceeds at 10 o'clock this morning and all the evidence probably will be in before noon.

Farnham Post Wins.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 20.—The state G. A. R. department, through its council of administration, has practically decided to reinstate Farnham post of New York city, which was expelled last winter. This post was expelled for passing resolutions on the pension question, condemning the position taken by the national G. A. R. encampment and circulating the resolutions throughout the country.

VAULT LEFT EMPTY IN A MONTERY BANK.

GANG OF ROBBERS AT WORK AGAIN.

Third of a Series of Bank Crackings in Indiana—Aurora Suffers Loss—Doubt About the Death of the Daltons, Although There Was a Hot Fight.

MONTEREY, Ind., April 20.—The only village bank was robbed last night. The robbers got away several thousand dollars.

AURORA, Ill., April 20.—The safe of the Standard Oil company was blown open by three burglars last night. Before they could get the money drawer open Frank Wulf, an employe, who lives next door, opened fire on them from his bedroom window. An exciting duel followed, but no one was hurt. The three escaped.

PERRY Ok., April 20.—A dust-covered and worn-out courier arrived here yesterday with the report that a battle to the death had occurred between United States marshals and six members of the famous Dalton gang, headed by Bill Dalton. The fight is reported to have taken place sixty-eight miles southeast of here near a town called Ingalls, near the line dividing the Creek Indian reservation from Oklahoma. Bill Dalton, Bill Doolan, "Bitter Creek Kid," "Three Finger Jack" Boone, and two unknown allies constituting the outlawed gang—and a posse of eight United States deputy marshals were the opposing parties, but the Associated Press is unable to verify the story of a fight. The following was received from Perry: "Basing his opinion upon reports as they come in, the sheriff of this county says there is not a word of truth in the report of a fight with the Daltons."

The following dispatch was received from Arkansas City, Kan.: "The report was taken into Berry by a cowboy whose reliability is not known. Trainmen and messengers who have arrived here from the south discredit the report."

ADVANCE CANNED FRUITS.

Poor Crop Prospects Cause a Big Rise—Other Crop Reports.

BALTIMORE, Md., April 20.—Owing to the poor fruit crop prospects canned goods have advanced 24 to 30 cents on a dozen. E. S. Judge, secretary to the National Canned Goods association, has just returned from an inspection of the peach growing district of Virginia, Maryland and Deleware. He says he cut open many blossoms and found that while they looked healthy on the outside the heart was black, which showed that the crop was ruined.

CAIRO, Ill., April 20.—This whole section of country has had abundant rains all during the spring and vegetation is coming on rapidly. The late freezes did not do as much damage as was feared. Peaches were all killed, but the injury to wheat will not amount to much. There will be fully half a crop of strawberries and grapes. The market gardeners suffered the loss of their earliest vegetables, but replanted at once and the warm sun and frequent rain will nearly compensate for the first loss. Preparations for corn planting are well under way.

SMALLPOX IN CHICAGO.

Health Department Seems Unable to Cope with the Pest.

CHICAGO, April 20.—The health department seems utterly unable to cope with the rapid spread of smallpox in the city. It had been expected that the new annex to the pest house would accommodate the unfortunate victims who have been denied admittance to the main hospital on account of its overcrowded condition, but already more cases have been reported than can be cared for in the new building. For a week the pesthouse has been so crowded that it has been impossible to receive new patients except when some of the inmates died or were discharged. The county hospital also has more cases than it can take care of and is urging the removal of those confined there, lest the contagion spread from the isolated ward into the crowded wards of the hospital proper.

The disease is confined entirely to the poor districts of the city, and the families affected are almost invariably those in want. Half of the isolated cases reported during the last week are in the Tenth ward. The others are scattered throughout the three divisions of the city. It is feared the schools will have to be closed.

COKE-BURNERS COWED.

Huns and Slavs Now Threaten to Expose Their Anarchistic Leaders.

CONNELLSVILLE, Pa., April 20.—The coke-workers at the Mahoning and Atlas plants of the Cambria Iron company went to work yesterday. A large number of deputies were on guard, but their services were not required. The men are working under the new scale. The Huns and Slavs are greatly incensed over the action of the strike leaders, and threaten to make startling disclosures concerning the anarchistic speeches delivered at the preliminary meeting.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 20.—The striking miners were given their first setback yesterday, when fifty negroes for the Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railway company at Blue Creek. The men were protected by a large constabulary force and experience no trouble.

WRECKS OF THE DAY AND THE DEATH LIST

FREIGHT JUMPED THE TRACK IN MICHIGAN.

Two Men Killed And One Seriously Wounded—Sinking of a Ferry Boat In East River, New York, Results In Loss of Life—The Accident Record.

VASSAR, Mich., April 20.—A freight jumped the track this morning. Two men were killed and one was seriously injured.

NEW YORK, April 20.—A ferry boat collision occurred at the Perry street crossing of North river this morning. It is reported that several were killed.

BUTTE, Mont., April 19.—Richard Huert, a miner, met a horrible death at Mountain View mine near here. He fell 1,000 feet down a shaft.

DEBS SAYS HE WANTS PEACE.

Asks President Hill for a Conference—Strike May Be Settled.

ST. PAUL, Minn., April 20.—The indications are that the strike on the Great Northern will be amicably adjusted unless a few of the hot-headed employes precipitate a strike in St. Paul and Minneapolis. Yesterday President Debs of the American Railway Union addressed a letter to President J. J. Hill asking for a conference between Mr. Hill and a committee representing the order. Mr. Hill replied at once stating that he would meet the committee Saturday. This is regarded as favorable to a termination of the fight. Reports from all along the line say that everything is quiet.

It is doubtful if there will be any strike in the twin cities for the next twenty-four hours, if at all. The road officials say that since the strike was inaugurated they have been in daily receipt of a large number of applications for positions from all parts of the country. At least five telegrams have been received offering fifty engineers each.

Trains on the Fergus Falls and Breckinridge division were several hours late, but finally pulled out. No injunctions have as yet been filed with United States courts in Montana or Washington. It is the company's policy to get the complications clear at this end of the line first and then to advance with no trouble to fear in the rear. As soon as the road is clear through North Dakota an injunction will be filed in Montana, and the toughest part of the contest will probably begin. In the majority of instances all local Great Northern employes express themselves as willing to obey the court's order.

No freight train has moved for the last twelve hours, and the only work being done in the Great Northern yards is foreign business.

WILMAR, Minn., April 20.—Two passenger trains arrived from the west at 5 o'clock last evening. The first train had two engines, one pushing and one pulling. This train was boarded at West Junction, brakes set and the front engine cut off in the yard while the east switch had been turned. Passenger coaches of both trains were sidetracked by strikers. Mail coaches with Superintendent Wakeman's car were made up ready to start when ordered by the company. No mail came from the east. No mail has moved on the Sioux Falls or St. Cloud branches since the strike commenced. The men are orderly.

GREAT FALLS, Mont., April 20.—The report that Superintendent Currier has offered terms to Montana Central trainmen is false and founded on a telegram from Bryan to Currier instructing to keep trainmen's time for April on the old schedule. Debs' telegram from St. Paul saying that Hill requests the leaders of the strike to come to St. Paul for a conference was received. The men say they are not likely to go, but will wire terms instead.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—Representative Johnson of North Dakota is indignant at the action of Judge Sanborn in ordering the arrest of Great Northern strikers and compelling them to show cause why injunction should not be issued against them to insure their future good behavior. He intends to introduce a resolution in the house looking to the impeachment of Sanborn for this, as he claims it is an unwarranted interference.

EXPECT A GENERAL SHUT DOWN.

Mine Workers' Officials Count on Success for the Strike.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, April 20.—The mine workers' officials are feeling more and more confident as the time set for the great strike draws near that an almost general suspension of work in all the bituminous coal fields will take place at noon Saturday. Advices from the Pittsburg district are especially satisfactory to the officials. The miners of Butler and Mercer counties, Pa., have held a mass meeting and resolved to go out to a man. News of like character has been received from Whitsett and Eureka, Pa. A letter from Montgomery, W. Va., says Kanawha river miners have all agreed to strike at 12 o'clock Saturday. Official information from Kirby, Mich., has been received by President McBride to the effect that all the miners of that district will join in the strike.

BRAZIL, Ind., April 20.—The miners' meetings at the various mines in the county developed the fact that the men will not continue to work full time till the expiration of their contract May 1. The fact that the operators are filling every switch with coal for use in case of emergency has caused the miners to vote to work only part time. Three thousand and two hundred tons are being shipped over the Chicago & Eastern Illinois to Chicago daily.

BRAIDWOOD, Ill., April 20.—At a mass meeting of the 5,000 miners employed in the Braidwood coal mining district it was decided to suspend work April 21, though contracts do not expire until May 1.

PANA, Ill., April 20.—The miners of this city in answer to a call met at the opera house last night. Little is known as to what was accomplished but it is understood that no strike has yet been declared here.

UNIONTOWN, Pa., April 20.—That the coke-workers will join in the national strike ordered for next Saturday seems more probable every day. That the national strike will be commenced in all the coal fields outside of the coke region appears certain.

TOPEKA, Kan., April 20.—State Mine Inspector Gallagher is now convinced that none of the coal miners in Kansas will obey the call of the national mineworkers to go out on a strike. He says that the union is badly divided in Kansas because of the failure of the national organization to furnish assistance to the Kansas men during the strike last summer.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 20.—By a unanimous vote miners in this district have decided to go on strike next Saturday noon. President Crawford says he has assurance that miners all over Illinois will go on the strike.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., April 20.—The strike in the Pennsylvania coal mines of Bell, Lewis & Yates is spreading and there are now fully 4,000 miners lying idle. Saturday noon is the time for the general strike to begin.

Make Terms to Prevent a Strike.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., April 20.—The street railway company completely backed down yesterday afternoon and signed the agreement to keep the union men for a year from May 1 at 19 cents an hour, and that no man will be discharged from the lines because of his connection with the Association of Street Railway Employes. There were two conferences between the men and the officials of the company. Each side made a proposition which the other rejected, and then the old scale was agreed on.

The Polish laborers who took the places of the striking stevedores refused to go to work and joined the ranks of the strikers. There are but few men at work on the docks loading steamers, and those at work, with few exceptions, belong to the crews.

Police Called Out to Quell a Mob.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, April 20.—Two hundred striking laboring men who have been employed upon the work of extension of the Cleveland City railway marched upon another body of forty men laboring in the construction of a sewer with a view of getting the sewer workers to throw up their work and join them. This the sewer workers refused to do. The aspect of the mob became threatening and a call for police protection was made,

Detectives Still Guard Ore Docks.

ASHLAND, Wis., April 20.—Just how long the Northwestern system will keep its small army of detectives on duty at the ore docks is an open question. Threats of violence are rife, but nothing is attempted with such an efficient guard on duty. But the moment the guard is removed trouble is feared.

NO TROUBLE AT DETROIT.

DETROIT, April 20.—Everything is quiet in the Polish quarter and the authorities anticipate no further trouble. Between two and three hundred laborers assembled at the scene of the riots armed with picks and shovels, but no work was offered. Sheriff Collins passed a comparatively quiet night and is now resting easily. Three of the ringleaders and about twenty of the rioters are in jail.

Denial from Satolli.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—The story published that Mgr. Satolli would prefer charges against Archbishop Corrigan at Rome of conspiring against him is denied by the papal ablegate.

Will Dock Pay of the Members.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—By the new certificate reviving the old law in disuse for thirty years, "docking" pay of members for absenteeism, the member certifies to the number of days he was absent during the month and the speaker certifies to the amount due him. Sergeant-at-arms Snow thinks the new system will result in much confusion and friction. Cashier Ballentine anticipates a demoralization of his books and is at a loss to know how they can be kept so that members can be paid, personally or by their drafts, with any assurance that they are not being overpaid.

Old-time controversies were often vigorous in language. In a controversy with Milton, concerning the divine right of kings, Salmasius called his opponent a puny piece of a man, a homunculus, a dwarf not having a human figure, a bloodless being, a creature of skin and bones, a contemptible pedagogue fit only to flog boys, a rhinoceros, a hang-dog-looking fellow. The great English poet not only answered in kind, but entered into an extensive correspondence with people in Holland

MORE ROYAL FOLKS PLAN A WEDDING.

FESTIVITIES AT COBURG TO HAVE A SEQUEL.

Grand Duke Nicholas and Princess Louise Publicly Betrothed—Duke of Hesse and His Bride Enter Darmstadt Amid Enthusiastic Demonstrations.

COBURG, April 20.—The betrothal is announced today of Grand Duke Nicholas to Princess Louise of Hesse.

DARMSTADT, April 20.—The Grand Duke of Hesse and his bride made a state entry this morning. The whole way to the castle was an ovation.

PALMER'S NEW LOAN BILL.

Illinois Statesman Not the Author—Diplomatic and Consular Appropriation.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—Wheat, corn, oats, rye, barley, hops, rice, cotton, hemp, jute, tobacco, open kettle sugar, sugar house molasses, or the drippings from sugar, all kinds of nuts, pindar, castor beans, indigo, olive oil, coffee, and all kinds of dried fruits are to be warehoused and made the basis of loans at the rate of 2 per cent on 50 per cent of their market value if a bill which Senator Palmer has introduced should become a law. It is the old government loan bill of Senator Stanford with a great many additions and variations. It provides for improving the sanitary conditions of towns, cities, and villages in addition to the free coinage of gold and silver, the cheapening of railroad transportation by government subsidies, and many other things. Nobody, however, can get a loan of less than $100 on his barley, open kettle sugar, castor beans, and pindar. The author of the bill proposes a Supreme court composed of thirteen judges, to be elected in thirteen districts for a period of thirteen years. Senator Palmer has merely introduced the measure by request.

TARIFF AS A BUSINESS QUESTION.

Senator Perkins Discusses the Measure as It Will Affect California.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—Yesterday in the senate was almost entirely consumed by a speech against the pending tariff bill by Senator Perkins of California. The speech was mainly devoted to a discussion of the articles which directly affected California wool, fruits, quicksilver and beet sugar. The senator opened his speech with a general statement describing the business and financial conditions of the country, saying that he preferred to consider and discuss the question as a business rather than a political matter. He took up and discussed the question in detail and at length as to the various Californian interests—borax, quicksilver, beet sugar, sulphur salt, fruits, nuts, wine, wool and coal—affected by the bill, claiming for them all the protection given under the present laws, and continued, after blaming the depression in business to the present administration:

"This ought to be the richest country in the world; taxes should be the lowest; labor on a higher standard and better paid; its products bring the greatest satisfaction. The unsettled classes, of which the number is constantly increasing, have no longer new and virgin territory to occupy when they become dissatisfied with the older communities. The time has come when in the order of things we must have a fixed national policy upon all questions affecting the stability of the government. The people can stand less nonsense in the shape of unwise laws than when there was less suffering and idleness among them."

But little business was transacted during the morning hour, the agreement of the senate to the report of the conference committee on the urgent deficiency bill being the most important. At 5 o'clock eulogies were pronounced on the late representative, W. H. Enochs of Ohio, after which the senate at 5:15 adjourned.

IN THE HOUSE.

Little Progress Made with the Diplomatic and Consular Appropriation Bill.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—The house early yesterday went into committee of the whole and the consideration of the diplomatic and consular appropriation bill was resumed. Mr. Dingley (rep., Maine) replied to some democratic strictures upon ex-Minister Stevens and paid a high tribute to his personal character and ability. Mr. McCreary (dem., Ky.) closed the general debate on the bill. The clerk then began to read the bill by paragraphs for amendment. Mr. Lacey offered the amendment of which he had given notice striking out the appropriation for a minister to Hawaii. The amendment reopened the Hawaiian controversy, the debate over which was participated in by Messrs. Grosvenor, Dinsmore, Van Vorhis, Milliken, Springer and Hitt. When the vote was taken on the Lacey amendment it was lost without division.

Mr. Cannon moved to strike out the proposed increase of the salary of the secretary of the legation at Mexico from $1,800 to $2,625. The republicans refused to vote on the motion, and as no quorum appeared, in accordance with the rule the roll was called, developing the presence of 181 members. The committee then arose. Mr. Sayers presented the conference report on the urgent deficiency bill. It was agreed to and the house, at 4:30 adjourned.

DR. MILLS IS GIVEN A SCOTCH FAREWELL

GIFTS OF GOLD FOR HIM AND HIS WIFE.

Members of the Rock County Caledonian Society Gather at Their Rooms In the Bennett Block and Give Evidence of Their Regard for the Ex-President.

Few people have as much fun saying good bye as Dr. and Mrs. James Mills.

Last night there was another gathering of friends in their honor and both the doctor and his wife got golden tokens of the Rock County Caledonian society's esteem.

It was in the Caledonian rooms that the affair took place and the rooms would hardly hold the crowd. W. R. Proudfoot was master of ceremonies and when the evening programme was half over he called on Alex. Galbraith, the new president, to voice the sentiment of the members. President Galbraith spoke of Dr. Mills' faithful service as leader of Rock County Scots and continuing said:

"His work as chief of the society ever since it was organized is to some extent known to most of you, but only those few who have been intimately associated with him and have had opportunities to see the unwearying labor bestowed by him on every detail of the society's work, the uniform courtesy and desire to please and make comfortable every member under all circumstances, the enthusiast'c and ever sustained interest in the work, and his desire to elevate the tone, to advance the interests and increase the usefulness of the society, and perhaps most of all that rare tact and good judgment so essential in removing little elements of discord or friction which are so liable to crop out in any society—I say only those who have had the opportunity to observe such things can properly appreciate the true value of our ex-president's services.

"To him far more than any one else is due the success and popularity which our society has enjoyed, and the greatest compliment that could be paid him lies in the fact of his unanimous re-election nine successive years. The present time seemed to the members of the city a most appropriate one for testifying in a tangible manner their good will and appreciation of those services. Several times during the last few years testimonials have been given to members leaving here, but the present case is clearly the most outstanding as being most richly merited.

"Dr. Mills, on behalf of the Rock County Caledonian society, I have great pleasure in asking your acceptance of this beautiful emblematic charm as a souvenir, with the earnest hope that you may be long spared to wear it, and that whether at home or abroad it may prove an ever present and pleasing witness of your connection with the society.

"I have another task to perform which is equally agreeable and important. In remember the ex-president we have not been unmindful of his good lady nor of the kindly interest manifested by her in our social gatherings. Her presence has always been a source of pleasure and encouragement at our meetings, and more than once she has taken an active and interesting part of our programme. We trust, Mrs. Mills, that you and your husband and little Wallace—a possible future hero like his great namesake—may all have a delightful trip and a safe return and that you may long be spared to wear this pin which I herewith present you on behalf of the society."

Dr. Mills recovered from his surprise very gracefully. He had no speech at hand, he said, but the society's expression was fully appreciated. The intrinsic value of the gifts was little compared with the good feeling that accompanied them. During the past eight years he had met frequently with the members of the society, and the meetings had always been pleasant. About a month ago he had tendered his resignation as president to the board of directors, and the resignation had been accepted. Good judgment had been used in electing Alexander Galbraith as president of the society, and he congratued the society on securing so able a gentleman for the position. He felt that good judgment had also been shown in electing C. C. McLean secretary while the post of treasurer could not be better filled than by John Harvey. He thanked his friends warmly for their thoughtfulness, and his words were heartily seconded by his wife.

The charm presented to Dr. Mills was of solid gold. On one side was the coat of arms of Scotland in raised work and surrounded by Scottish jewels, while on the reverse side was the inscription: "Presented to Dr. James Mills, President of the Rock County Caledonian Society, as a Mark of Their Esteem." Mrs. Mills received a solid gold lace pin representing a bunch of Scottish thistles tied with a gold ribbon. Both of the gifts were furnished by D. W. Kolle.

The musical and literary programme on which Supt. Proudfoot had expended all the managerial skill that marked his piloting of street cars through snow drifts and mud banks, included a piano duet by Mrs. Fenton Winans and Miss Baldwin; a reading by Hon. Alex. Graham; a song, "Love's Golden Dream," by Mrs. Christine P. Hawley, accompaniment by Mrs. J. F. Pember; a cornet solo by John Stevens; an instrumental duet by Miss May McGregor and Edward P. Hayward; a reading by Miss Lou Fenton: a piano solo by George Dower; the Scotch ballad, "Bide a Wee," by Mrs. Hawley, and a solo by J. B. Waldo. Nearly every number won a recall. Before the programme was finished Secretary Galbraith read a letter full of good wishes addressed to Dr. Mills and wife by the Racine Caledonian Society. The company did not break up until midnight, an hour being spent very pleasantly in card playing and story telling.

LEAF GROWER'S VIEW OF THE FIELD

The Rock county tobacco growers were never in a greater quandary about their business than at present. Whether to continue to grow the weed or abandon the business, and raise corn and pork, that is the question. The proper thing for every prudent grower to do in the present dilemma is to reason from cause to effect. What is the cause of the depressed market? One answer is, over production of a poor article and tariff tinkering. Remedy—cut the acreage in two and resolve to raise for quality, and not quantity. The probabilities now are that the tariff on tobacco will not be materially changed. From the reports from all cigar tobacco districts the indications point to a great reduction in the acreage. The logical conclusion would be a more luxurious growth, with better cultivating, and care in handling the '94 crop. The market for cigar leaf that is suitable for domestic purposes is growing stronger with a visible manifestation of desire on the part of eastern dealers to secure the available lots of the remaining '91 and '92 goods in packers and farmers hands. During the last two months at least 15000 cases of Wisconsin tobacco has been secured by New York dealers, shrewd business men who know their money is safe invested in such stock and are taking time by the forelock and laying such goods in store for future demands. The cigar business generally is picking up The larger manufacturers have wisely concluded not to fear, or borrow trouble about the tariff legislation. With this vexed question virtually settled, it is fair to believe that the business in general is on the eve of prosperity. Confidence will soon be restored and then Wisconsin Bs, binders and wrappers, will sell for more lucrative prices. Business at the association warehouses is good. The new packing at Janesville and Orford aggregates over 2,000 cases. Sales of the '91 and '92 goods during the last fortnight reach a total of 187 cases, at prices quite satisfactory to crop owners. Business relations are being perfected by which early sales of the '93 crop will be effected, both in the line of export and domestic goods. Farmers and patrons having good, well matured crops should lose no sleep, nor spend valuable time brooding over the situation as it is and has been for the last six months. Place your goods in suitable condition to sweat. If not in cases, put them there at once, and during the months of July, August and September you will be rewarded as good and faithful, intelligent growers. ASSOCIATION.

Some Food Tests.

The official food analyses by the United States and Canadian governments have been studied with interest. The United States government report gives the names of eighteen well-known baking powders some of them advertised as pure cream of tartar powders, which contain alum.

The report shows the Royal to be a pure cream of tartar baking powder, the highest in strength, evolving 160.6 cubic inches of leavening gas per single ounce of powder. There were eight other brands of cream of tartar powders tested, and their average strength was 111.5 cubic inches of gas per ounce of powder.

The Canadian government investigations were of a still larger number of powders. The Royal Baking powder was here also shown the purest and highest in strength, containing 129.32 cubic inches of leavening gas per ounce of powder. Nine other cream of tartar powders were tested, their average strength being reported to be 89 cubic inches of gas per ounce.

These figures are very instructive to the practical housekeeper. They indicate that the Royal Baking powder goes more than 33 per cent. further in use than than the others, or is one-third more economical. Still more important than this, however, they prove this popular article has been brought to the highest degree of purity—for to its purity this superiority in strength is due—and consequently that by its use we may be insured the purest and most wholesome food.

The powders of lower strength are found to leave large amounts of impurities in the food. This fact is emphasized by the report of the Ohio State Food Commissioner, who, while finding the Royal practically pure, found no other powder to contain less than 10 per cent. of inert or foreign matters.

The statistics show that there is used in the manufacture of the Royal Baking Powder more than half of all the cream-of-tartar consumed in the United States for all purposes. The wonderful sale thus indicated for the Royal Baking Powder—greater than that of all other baking powders combined—is perhaps even a higher evidence than that already quoted of the superiority of this article, and of its indispensableness to modern cookery.

BURNED OUT TWICE BUT WILL REBUILD.

TIFFANY BOUND TO HAVE A CREAMERY.

Incendiaries Are Supposed to Have Destroyed the Plant on Two Occasions But the Farmers Again Put Their Shoulder to the Wheel—Various Country Items.

TIFFANY, April 20—Efforts are being made to rebuild the creamery twice destroyed by fire. A stock company is being formed on the co-operative plan, working under a charter obtained a few years ago. Sufficient stock has been taken to insure its erection. Investigation of the operations of creameries on the co-operative plan show that in such companies butter can be made at a cost of two cents a pound, where 10,000 pounds of milk daily are handled.

The Congregational church at Shopiere will hold its fiftieth anniversary on the 27th of this month. The programme will consist of histories of the different societies on the evening of the 26th; historical reminiscences of the church with memorial address by two of the "boys;" a banquet at noon with toasts and responses in the afternoon and a general good time. An invitation is extended to all interested.

Fishermen line the creek banks a no bass or pickerel are known returned to its waters if caught. The inquiry is constantly being made by parties interested in preserving our game, fish concerning fish wardens, their duties and how to proceed in case of violation of law. For fifty years the law in relation to fish ways has not been observed on the Turtle and no warden has raised his voice relating to its violation.

Tobacco beds are being planted but the acreage will be much reduced. Fred Day has a new shop and will soon be running again. Seeding is progressing rapidly. More oats and corn and less barley will be planted. Henry Tarrant is putting out a new orchard of five hundred trees.

MILTON BENT ON IMPROVEMENT

People of the Wide-Awake Town Developing New Plans.

MILTON, April 20—A petition is being largely signed by citizens, requesting the board of supervisors to lay a good sidewalk from the corner of Clem W. Crumb's lot to the cemetery. This is a very much-needed improvement, and should be made. The announcement that Miss Williams, of the public school, had dispensed with her crutches, was premature. After she had laid them aside for a brief time, her ankle became more troublesome than ever, and she has been obliged to return to their use. A valuable dog strayed or stolen—a liberal reward will be paid for his return to "Du Lac Inn" on Monday night. Postmaster Morris attended to some legal business at Madison last Monday and Tuesday. W. C. Allen is driving Fetherston's grocery wagon in the rural regions, The house cleaning, garden plowing and bonfire epoch has again arrived and the men of the house are troubled in spirit. Mrs. M. W. Greene has opened her millinery parlors in the "Block." Miss Elizabeth Flaville of Janesville, spent Tuesday with her sister, Miss Mary Flaville. Hon. P. M. Green did business in Milwaukee Tuesday. Sheriff Bear was in the village Tuesday. George F. Orcutt and wife of Whitewater, were the guests of Milton relatives this week. The town has furnished all justices of the peace with the new annotated statutes of Wisconsin and they are now prepared to dispense justice in latest style. Miles Rice is starting a currant plantation this spring. He has already planted three acres and expects to increase the acreage to six next year. Robert Home, who has been spending some time on the Pacific coast, at the mid winter fair and in Mexico, returned Tuesday. He reports an enjoyable trip and improvement in health A maple sugar social was the latest at the M. E. church, Tuesday evening and onWednesday evening the Seventh Day Baptist Y. P. S. C. E. enjoyed a "Photo" social at their church. The Epworth League hold a social at the residence of J. P. Bullis next Tuesday evening. The public and sister societies are cordially invited. The board of supervisors have granted licenses to the proprietors of billiard rooms here and at the Junction in accordance with the vote at town meeting. Each table pays a license fee of $5 a year and the rooms are to close promptly at 11 o'clock in the summer and 10 p. m. during the winter season. Misses Dollie and Mary Olin of Dodge Center, Minn., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Well. The "O. G." had a birthday last week and now rests easily in an arm chair.

DISTEMPER IN SOUTH CLINTON.

Horses Show the Effects—"Prohibition vs Woman Suffrage" Debated.

SOUTH CLINTON, April 20—The distemper has appeared among the horses. C. J. Dresser has had one that was very sick for a day or so. Mr. Dresser had another horse fall dead in the harness while he was sowing grain on Wednesday. The horse was in perfect health to all appearances. Mrs. Holgerson who has been sick for so long is improving. Hattie Bellinger gets home to the Temperance meetings. The Ladies' Sewing society of the Lutheran church met at Mrs. T. T. Nelson's on Tuesday. The meeting of the Temperance club at E. L. Benedict's last Friday evening was a success. "Resolved that woman suffrage is of more importance than prohibition," was the topic of debate. The sides were nearly equally matched the negatives beating by a very small majority. Miss Duxstad and Mrs. Nellie Smith were judges in the contest in Manchester, Ill., last Saturday evening. The neighborhood prayer meeting will be at E. L. Benedict's next Thursday evening. Mrs. Irwin Bates has been quite sick but is gaining.

SEVERAL LECTURES IN FOOTVILLE

Mrs. Davis Greeted By a Full House---Miss Silverthorn Wins a Medal.

FOOTVILLE, April 20—The lecture by Mrs. Davis last Sunday eve was well attended and all enjoyed the treat. The Demorest Silver Medal contest Tuesday night was interfered with somewhat by the rain, but the contestants spoke in a manner that showed they had spent much time in training. Jessie Silverthorn carried off the trophy. The evening entertainment was filled in by recitations from the Misses Chase and Townsend of Magnolia, who deserve especial commendations. Mrs. Vie Campbell, of Evansville will lecture in the Deciple church next Sunday night. Rev. Milton Wells, now located at Green, Iowa, was called here to preach the funeral sermon of A. E. Douglass. Miss Florence Reed, of Evansville, began her spring term of school in the Honeysett district Monday. Robert Strang now has his office in Mr. Acheson's machine shop. Mr. Acheson will now canvass the surrounding country. Scott Parmely spent Saturday at Dennis Ryan's. The Modern Woodmen hold weekly meetings and are steadily growing.

WHAT HAPPENED IN LIMA.

Death of Little Harvey Coats--Comings and Goings of Village Folk.

LIMA, April 20.—Death entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. Coats claiming their little son Harvey, aged twenty-two months, last Saturday morning. He was taken with a spasm, and within twenty-four hours his young life went out. The funeral services were held at the home Tuesday, at two p. m., conducted by the Rev. Mr. Clark, of the United Brethren church. The floral tributes were numerous and very beautiful. Carrie and Allie Johnson visited their brother Willard at Milton Junction part of last week. Mrs. Phoebe Janes is visiting Whitewater friends. Mrs. S. Bullock, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. H. L. James, left Tuesday morning for Whitewater, and on Wednesday took her departure for Madison, Dakota, to join her husband who is in the creamery busines in that place. Mr. Parker has moved into the house recently vacated by Mr. Garlock, and Mr. Freeman into the house that Mr. Parker had. Edna Richmond visited at her grandparents, Mr. Mills, at Milton Junction last Friday.

CHAT ABOUT CENTER FOLKS.

Church Entertainment--Blacksmith To Stay--Fat Cattle Sold By Crall

CENTER, April 20—The entertainment at the church Tuesday night was lightly attended, although the program was worthy of a larger audience. Grace Cowden is home and looks as if the southern air agreed with her. Rettig will stay here, the deal between him and the German minister having fallen through. The merry ring of the anvil will be heard from the village blacksmith as of old. Maud Wells was making calls in town Saturday. A. D. Nott of Janesville, spent Monday at his farm near here. John Snyder is improving the looks of his house by having it thoroughly painted. Eli Crall sold a number of fat cattle to Scarcliff. Rev. Milton Wells preached one of his old style sermons to a good audience Sunday night in Center church, where he was pastor so long. He is now located at Green, Iowa. Elmer Parmley of Evansville, was in town Tuesday.

NORTH JOHNSTOWN JOTTINGS.

Much Seeding Has Been Done—John Bennett on the Sick List.

NORTH JOHNSTOWN, April 20—Mr. and Mrs. Phil Westrick rejoice in the addition to their family of a son, their first born—April 9. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Newton visited their son Earl and family at Koshkonong last Sunday, especially to see their new grandson, who has recently come to their home. Mrs. E. Cary visited Lima friends last Tuesday. John Bennett is on the sick list again, but is now better. Miss Carrie Johnson, of Lima, spent last Sabbath in the old neighborhood, returning home on Monday. Mrs. James Brown is much better than she was in the early spring. The farmers are busy seeding, and much grain will be put in this week.

ICE HINDERED SOUTH TURTLE.

Calvin Johnson Made Sick By Exposure--Farm Work Stopped.

SOUTH TURTLE, April 20.—Calvin Johnson had too much of the ice storm last week and was quite sick for two or three days. The ice storm put a stop to farming, but farmers are now making up for it. Rev. Mr. Dexter preaches at Murray school house next Sabbath. The South Turtle band sang at the contest in Manchester Ill. last Saturday night. Mrs. Nellie Smith took charge of the new class organized in Sunday school last Sabbath. Mr. Ondell has bought the Ed. Westby property and takes possion next fall.

STRATTON, 9 South Main street, is selling wall paper very cheap.

STRATTON'S great sale of wall paper, paints, etc., is still going on. One third off is his motto.

THE PIANO COUPONS IN GREAT DEMAND.

NEW CANDIDATES HAVE BEEN NOMINATED.

Everybody Who Has Examined the Instrument at S. C. Burnham & Co's Says the Things Said in Its Favor Were Justified—Conditions of the Contest.

Piano coupons are at a premium all around town. Besides canvassing for coupons several of the candidates are also securing the votes of those who wish to subscribe for the paper. Names of new candidates are mentioned daily and as fast as votes are received the names will be added to the published list. This is not arranged in the order of voting, but alphabetically.

Everybody who has seen The Gazette piano is enthusiastic in its praise. It has a pure ringing tone, and its action is very fine. These qualities are what would be expected of a Shaw piano and The Gazette made no mistake in choosing that instrument.

Friends of contestants show a lively interest in the success of their favorites and votes are coming in rapidly. New subscribers should be reported as fast as secured, but coupons should be tied in bundles of one hundred each and kept until the day the competition closes. Votes have been cast up to date, for the following candidates:

Baker, Bessie
Clifford, Alice M,
Eldredge, Rose B.
Frink, May
Foster, Lahlie
Gifford, Alice V.
Gibbs, Maria J.
Holt, Ellen
Kenyon, Cora
Kastner, Alice
Loucks, Franc
McNeil, Anna
Peters. Nellie
Randall, Carrie M.
Wright, Ada V.

Names of other candidates will be added as fast as votes are received. Only bona fide candidates will be allowed. The rule that nobody is permitted to enter merely to represent an organized society will be strictly enforced.

From now until the contest closes a coupon will be printed in each issue of the Gazette.

1. Any one, anywhere in any state is entitled to vote as often as they buy a copy of The Janesville Gazette containing the above ballot.

2. Cut the ballot out (trimming on the dotted lines.) Write in the name of your candidate and enclose same in an envelope addressed to Ballot Editor. Gazette, Janesville, Wis.

3. Only one person can be voted for on one ballot.

6. The lady who receives the largest number of votes will receive as good and beautiful a piano as the Shaw Piano Company can make.

7. The contest will close June 30, 1894. Piano will be delivered as soon as the counting of votes is completed.

8. Any person who will bring The Gazette one new subscriber paid in advance will be entitled to the following number of ballots:

New subscriber paid in advance one month, 100 votes.

New subscriber paid in advance two months, 250votes.

New subscriber paid in advance six month, 900 votes,

New subscriber paid in advance one over, 2,000 votes.

Each new subscriber who pays in advance and casts the number of votes specified is also entitled, of course, to cut coupons from the paper from day to day and vote in the regular manner.

No person will be allowed extra votes for stopping his paper and having it sent to another name at the same address.

In every instance they must be bona fide new subscribers.

We will be square with you, you must be square with us. No person will be allowed to stop his paper on Monday and start it again Tuesday and claim the premium offered.

The polls will close at 9:00 p. m., June 30, but votes handed in before this will be duly credited. The contest will be conducted strictly "on the square." No partiality or unfair advantage will be taken or allowed in any case.

CHIEF OF UMPIRES.

The Functions of the Office Created for Harry Wright.

While Harry Wright's duties as chief of umpires have not been officially defined by President Young, it is not unlikely that all complaints will be turned over to him for investigation. He will visit the city where the umpire against whom the charges have been made is working, "look him over" and act according to his judgment. Umpires will know that no snap judgment will be taken in their cases, and club captains and managers will know that their interests are safe in his hands. Club officials will greatly strengthen Mr. Wright's hands if, when they think they have reason for complaint, they say nothing to the umpire of the proposed protest, but inform Mr. Wright direct, and let him watch the work of the umpire without the latter's knowledge.

One of the little things that help to make the umpire's existence a burden is the bluff protests that some of the managers make. Many an umpire has been raked over the coals by the head of a losing club solely for the purpose and with the hope of getting the best of the deal in the next game. These protests would have no effect upon men with the moral stamina of Lynch, but they have had their effect in the past with umpires less generously endowed with backbone. If managers are sincere in their expressed desire for improvement in the umpiring and wish to help Mr. Wright in his work, they will see that there is no more protesting to the umpire direct.

SPORTING

There are now 132 horses eligible for the American Derby, to be run in Chicago June 23 for a purse of $25,000.

Champion Corbett has posted his third stake payment of $3,000 for his proposed match with Jackson.

Northwestern University's ball team defeated the Joliet club by a score of 16 to 9. Griffith's pitching was phenomenal.

Tuesday: Baseball games resulted: Browns 10, Williams 9; Indianapolis 5, Minneapolis 1; Grand Rapids 11, Fort Waynes 0; New Orleans 7, Mobiles 4.

Handspun, the first of Hanover's get to race defeated a field of 2-year-olds, including the daughter of Salvator and Miss Woodford, at Memphis.

Thursday's baseball games resulted: Grand Rapids 16, Fort Waynes 7; Pittsburgs 19, Milwaukees 3; St. Louis 1, Kansas Citys 0; Louisvilles 4, Detroits, 3.

Kitty Scott, at 12 to 5, won the race for 2-year-olds at Memphis. Only one of the five favorites ended first.

Leo Lake, a son of Leonatus and lady of the Lake, won the Produce stake for 2-year-old colts at Memphis.

Corbett now announces his willingness to fight Peter Jackson in London provided a purse of sufficient size is offered.

Lamplighter will not be a starter in the Brooklyn handicap, having thrown out a splint. He has been heavily backed.

Fifty-two entries have been received for the Suburban handicap of the Coney Island club. Other stakes have filled well.

Orinda and Zoulika, coupled at 20 to 1, ran first and second in the Minneola stakes at Memphis. La Belle, the odds-on favorite, was third.

YACHTING IN 1894.

The Centerboard Knockabout a Popular Type for This Season.

This year Lawley, the yacht builder, is making a specialty in what he calls the "centerboard knockabouts." They are boats of twenty-one feet water line and under, with good beam, moderate draught, lead on the keel and in the centerboard and with a handy jib and mainsail rig.

They are hard to capsize, are easily handled and promise to fill a place in shallow waters which the keel knockabouts could not take. Three of them are now under way for yachtsmen in Buzzard's bay. They are 17 feet water line, 25 feet over all, 7 feet beam and 2 feet draught, with 800 pounds of lead on the keel and 200 in the centerboard. They have large, open cockpits, are lightly but strongly built and carry 300 square feet of sail.

It Makes a Difference.

Manager Ward of the New Yorks has been somewhat harshy criticised for his determined opposition to the demands of Farrell and Rusie, owing to the fact that when he was only a plain, ordinary player he was wont to stand out each year for a big advance. The fact that he generally succeeded in his "strike" is used against him. There does not seem to be much sense or justice in this complaint. He is now a manager, liberally paid to look after the club's interest. It makes a heap of difference which side of the fence a person is on. A man of property is never an anarchist and a landlord deprecates the "no-rent" movement.—Sporting Life.

TREES AND PLANTS.

The tallest trees in the world grow in Australia. They are a species of marsh gum and some are said to exceed 300 feet in height.

The resurrection plant, a native of South Africa, becomes dry and apparently lifeless during drouth, but opens its leaves and assumes all the appearance of life when rain falls.

The Victoria lily of Guiana has a circular leaf from six to twelve feet in diameter. It is turned up at the edge like a tray and can support, according to its size, from 100 to 300 pounds.

There is a wild flower, resembling an orchid, which grows in several parts of Turkey. It is an exact floral image of a humming bird. The breast is green, the wings are a deep rose color, the head and beak almost black.

There is a plant in Jamaica called the life plant, because it is almost impossible to kill it or any portion of it. When a leaf is cut off and hung up by a string it sends out white thread-like roots, gathers moisture from the air and begins to grow new leaves.

The Owen Glendower oak, near Shrewsbury, is forty-four feet in diameter at the ground. It owes its name to the fact that in 1401 Owen Glendower, the Welsh leader, climbed into its topmost branches to reconnoiter an approaching English army.

The banyan tree is a grove of itself. Its branches send out stringy filaments which finally reach the ground, take root and become trunks. One such tree in India has 400 main trunks and over 8,000 smaller. An English army of 7,000 men has been sheltered at one time under its branches.

The baobab trees of Senegal are denominated by Humboldt the "oldest organic monuments of our planet." One he describes particularly as being over 100 feet in diameter, and calculates its age at the very least as 5,000 years. Its foliage forms a gigantic green semi-circle over 100 feet high and 400 in diameter.

The sago of commerce is made from the trunk of a palm tree. It is said to be a most extraordinary sight to see the trunk of a large tree cut down and in a few hours wholly converted into food. A single tree will provide food enough for a man for a whole year, and ten days' labor will convert it into a palatable and nourishing article of diet.

A Standard Bearer.

In the crusade inaugurated nearly half a century ago against the professional ignorance of the old school of medicine, Hostetters' Stomach Bitters was a standard bearer. Its victories over disease, when the old time specifics proved abject failures, proved that the pseudo-philosophy which sanctioned the administration of violent remedies where the case required none, which laid down as unalterable rules blood letting, violent purgation the use of emetics and the employment of corrosive and cumulative poisons in simple cases of lived and malarial complaint, was in fact te worst of unphilosophy contrary alike to the laws of true medicinal science, of hygene and of common sense. Biliousness, constipation and chills and fever, as now treated by the Bitters, promptly yield where before they obstinately resisted old fashioned medication. So do dyspepsia, rheumatism and kidney comolaint—all surely conquerable by this safe and really philosophic remedy.

A Disputed Case.

Many persons dispute the question as to whether or not baldness caused either by disease or neglect can be cured. In deciding the question allow us to say that most cases can be cured, while others can not. Only a specialist of years of experience can tell this. Professor Birkholz, the world-renowned German specialist of the Masonic Temple, Chicago, where those who desire a good head of hair or beard can consult him in private, and free of charge. After a thorough examination, which costs you nothing, we will tell you whether or not you may procure that trait of personal adornment so necessary to your existence, and if we find that the follicles are not all dead, we will treat you and guarantee the results or ask no pay. G.A.R. NOTICE

We take this opportunity of informing our subscribers that the new Commissioner of Pensions has been appointed. He is an old soldier, and we believe that soldiers and their heirs will receive justice at his hands. We do not anticipate that there will be any radical changes in the administration of pension affairs under the new regime.

We would advise, however, that U. S. soldiers, sailors, and their heirs, take steps to make application at once, if they have not already done so, in order to secure the benefit of the early filing of their claims in case there should be any future pension legislation. Such legislation is seldom retroactive. Therefore it is of great importance that applications be filed in the department at the earliest possible date.

If U. S. soldiers, or their widows, children, or parents desire information in regard to pension matters, they should write to the Press Claims Company at Washington, D. C., and they will prepare and send the necessary application, if they find them entitled under the numerous laws enacted for their benefit. Address:

Press Claims Company,

JOHN WEDDERBURN,

THIS DAY IN HISTORY

1718—David Brainerd, famous missionary to the Indians, born at Haddam, Conn.; died 1747.

1736—Prince Eugene of Savoy, famous commander; died; born 1663.

1808—Charles Louis Napoleon Bonaparte, known in history as Louis Napoleon, third emperor, born in Paris; died at Chiselhurst Jan. 9, 1873.

1869—The steamer Uselda burned on the Missouri river; 54 lives lost.

1885—Richard Ansdell, R. A., celebrated animal painter, died; born 1795.

1892—Severe earthquake throughout the whole of California; central near Vacaville, where great damage was done.

1893—Mrs. Almira Hancock, widow of General W. S. Hancock, died in New York city. Disaster at the intake end of the Milwaukee tunnel; 11 workmen drowned.

Coxey's army has been acting just like it was a portion of the democratic party.

Ex-Speaker Reed can now slightly paraphrase the famous saying into 'Tis better to be right than to be speaker.

If some man can devise a scheme that will prevent the return of Corbett to the United States he will "fill a long felt want."

Congress ought to do the square thing by Evangelist Moody. He has been publicly praising congress, an almost unheard of thing.

The man who expects to get something for nothing should be watched. If somebody doesn't give him what he wants he is apt to steal it.

A more complete wreck than the democratic party is today was never seen on land or sea. Incompetent pilots have done the business.

The democratic senators talk very valiantly against trusts, but when it comes to legislation they invariably do what the trusts order them to do.

If the cuckoo democrats succeed in driving Hill out of the democratic party where can he go? He has bitterly abused the populists and the republicans don't want him.

Congressman Breckinridge is quoted as having said: "I have some years of good work in me yet." Wonder if he means the same kind of "good work" he has been engaged in for the last ten years?

It is not surprising that some of the democrats in the house should make ugly faces over surrendering to ex-Speaker Reed to the extent of authorizing the counting of a quorum. Still it is only a repitition of the old story. Surrendering is nothing new to democrats.

SURPRISE TO W. J. LENNARTZ

Friends Gather at His Home and Pass Merry Hours.

Mail Carrier William J. Lennartz has many reasons to remember his birthday and the pleasant surprise it brought him at his home, 352 South Franklin street. last evening. About sixty of his intimate friends assembled and made the Lennartz home echo with merriment for a few hours. A mandolin club—George Bauman, Dr Charles Peirce, Charles Johnson, George Robinson, and Harry Haggart, rendered several beautiful numbers. Refreshments were served, and before the guests departed for their homes, the host was given a handsome easy chair as a token of the esteem entertained for him by those present.

FAUST HERE NEXT MONDAY.

John Griffiths Comes From Other Towns Well Recommended.

"Faust" and "La Belle Russe" are the pieces to be presented by John Griffiths at the Myers Monday and Tuesday. The Fond du Lac Commonwealth says of the company: "The presentation of 'Faust' at the Crescent opera house last night, was not the Lewis Morrison conception of this wonderful production of Goethe, and because it was a change was all the more interesting. As a whole Faust was never better rendered in this city than it was on this occasion. The Mephistopheles of John Griffith was very fine, and his effectiveness was not so much in the knowledge of his lines, which was always perfect, as it was in his exhibition of cunning in motion and facial expression.

O. D. ROWE KEEPS HIS WAREHOUSE

Report That He Has Leased It to the Carriage Top Company Unfounded.

EDITOR GAZETTE:—In The Gazette of the 18th inst. I notice an article in regard to the Wisconsin Carriage Top Company leasing my warehouse. I wish to say that this statement is a mistake and might just at this time do me a great injury. I have not leased my warehouse to the Wisconsin Carriage Top Company. I am still in the tobacco business; have several hundred cases of tobacco stored in the building now, and expect to put in considerable more during the year. The Wisconsin Carriage Top Company were crowded for room and I simply gave them temporary accommodation as friends and neighbors.

FAIRFIELD PIONEER FOUND DEAD.

Mrs. Jane Dickens Expires Suddenly—Death of Mrs. E. G. Cheeseboro.

FAIRFIELD, April 30—Mrs. Jane Dickens was found dead in bed at the residence of David Dykeman on Wednesday morning. Mrs. Dickens was eighty years of age, and came from England to Wisconsin in 1846. She leaves to mourn the loss of a mother three sons, Thomas and Edwin of Iowa; Frank of Darien; and one daughter, Mrs. D. O. Sanborn, of northern Wisconsin; also many friends. by whom she was highly esteemed. The funeral was held Friday afternoon at the Methodist church, of which she was a consistent member. The remains were interred in the Fairfield cemetery beside those of her husband and son. Mrs. E. G. Cheesbro Sr., passed quietly to her rest April 7, 1894. The deceased was born at Worcester, N. Y., March 14, 1822, and was married April 27, 1870. to Edwin G. Cheesebro, who survives her. The funeral services were held April 9, conducted by Rev. C. A. Hobbs, of Delavan, the burial being at Delavan. E. Holmes, of Chicago, was a guest of James Cutter's the past week. Miss Angie Douglass, of Allen Grove, was seen in our midst last Sunday. Her parents expect to make Clinton their home in the near future. B. Conry spent a portion of last week in Chicago. Last Friday evening a surprise party was given in honor of Joanna McFarlan, of Richmond, ere she sailed for England. Those who attended from this vicinity were Mrs. Lillie Brown, Misses Frances Wilkins, Bertha Clark, Maggie Duthie, Messrs. Grant Wilkins and A. Thompson. The Epworth League is preparing for a lecture course which will open in May with a concert. Watch for dates.

MUCH GRAIN SOWED IN PORTER.

Bulk of the Crop is in the Ground--Tobacco Beds Seen.

PORTER, April 20.—Almost all the small grain has been sowed in this locality, and some are preparing the ground for corn. Numerous canvas-covered tobacco beds are in sight again this spring, which go to show that there are at least some farmers who have kept up their courage in regard to tobacco, despite last year's low prices. Bernie Whaley, of Stoughton, is working at Dennie Casey's this summer. Wilson Fredendall, of Indian Ford, has moved on to the Pyre farm. The folks who worked it last year have moved to Madison. James Murphy is having a cellar dug this week preparatory to building an addition to his house. Mr. Jenson has moved from the Pound farm to Leroy Fessenden's, where he will raise tobacco this year. Mrs. Earle has seven girls assorting her share of the tobacco raised on the homestead. Miss Abbie McCarthy, of Stoughton, is teaching in the Liennan district, and Nellie Peach commenced her school again in Center. The machinery is being put in the Eagle creamery, this week, and it is thought the company will commence operations May 1. Miss Minnie Hayward spent Sunday with her parents in Evansville.

Piles and Ruptures.

Among the most common complaints that affect the human family are piles and ruptures. Many men go through life suffering from the last named disease, when a little time and attention would effect a permanent cure. Science has reduced to an absolute certainty the cure of rupture. This is the only disease that the McChesney Sanitarium guarantees positively to cure, and this guarantee is backed by the proposition "no cure no pay." If you are suffering from rupture place yourself under treatment at the McChesney Sanitarium and you will soon be permanently cured. Science has also done much for the cure of piles, and the most scientific methods are employed at the Sanitarium in treating this most annoying disease. A large per centage of these cases can be permanently cured and relief for months is invariably given.

Ladies' Waists.

Next Monday morning we will place on sale one hundred dozen ladies' white lawn waists, three box pleats front and back, attached belt. Well made and just the thing to wear around the house. Sizes are 32 to 42, and the price will be ten cents, which would barely pay for the buttons and thread used in making. The price will hold as long as the lot lasts, but the chances are that won't be a great while. Take advantage of a good thing next Monday morning.

ARCHIE REID.

NEARLY TEN MILLION MEN.

The Army From Which Uncle Sam May Draw Should Occasion Require.

An army of 9,900,000 men! How Napoleon's legions dwindle beside this, and the hosts which Grant, Sherman and Sheridan led shrink to pigmies, says the Boston Journal. This enormous figure represents all the able-bodied men in the United States available for military service. But of course no such swarm of fighters could ever be mobilized in this or any other country. It would overtax even American energy and resources to clothe and feed and arm and maintain them in idleness. The figures have no practical military value, but as a suggestion of the mighty military potentialities of the young republic they are not without their interest to the world. But when we come to enumerate the men actually under arms in the United States as trained and disciplined soldiers we realize our present military significance. Besides the little regular army of 25,000 men there is a more or less thoroughly organized and equipped force of 112,190 men in the national guard and militia. That is, only about one man in 100 of those of our citizens able to bear arms regularly engaged in mastering the rudiments of the soldier's profession. New York, as might be expected, has the largest military organization — 737 officers and 12,072 men. Pennsylvania has 8,614 officers and men; Ohio, 6,125. Then comes Massachusetts, well up in the list, with 5,666. Fiery South Carolina, with 5,440 officers and men, has an armed force out of all proportion to its wealth and population. The New England states, outside Massachusetts, have respectable little armies, ranging from Vermont's 784 to Connecticut's 2,761. The Southern states have large militia organizations as a whole; the Western states very small ones. But the national guard is steadily growing everywhere in numbers as in efficiency. It is fulfilling in a satisfactory way its purpose of perpetuating a knowledge of military art, and it would be found to be a respectable nucleus for a host of volunteers to rally on in an emergency.

Explorer William Astor Chanler.

William Astor Chanler, the successful African explorer, who is returning from a hunting expedition in the dark continent, has succeeded in adding a hitherto unknown range of mountains to the map. These are the Jombene mountains, in which Mr. Chanler found the Mackenzie river has its source. Mr. Chanler is but 26 years of age and was graduated from Harvard a few years ago. Soon after leaving college he went to Africa on a hunting expedition and made a daring trip through Masailand, going around Mount Kilima-Njaro, whose circuit he was the first white man to make. His family is wealthy and is connected with the Astors.

CHASED THE BANKER CLEAR TO BRAZIL.

HENRY TELLS OF PURSUING CADWALLADDER.

Fugitive Gave the Clue to His Identity By a Story of What Two Men Could Do Without Capital in Starting a Bank In Any Northwestern State.

The monotony of details of the banking business and the various deals in which Albert A. Crdwallader was engaged during his brief reign as president of the Superior bank, told by the witness at his trial in the federal court, was relieved by the interesting story told by Captain Charles E. Henry, the man who brought Cadwallader back from Brazil a year ago last February, when he jumped his bail and fled the country. Captain Henry has done detective duty for the government, and various companies, one of which was the American Surety Company, of New York, which was on Cadwallader's bond as surety for the faithful performance of his duties as president of the Superior Bank. He went to Brazil to capture a fugitive named Shadbolt, who was wanted at Philadelphia for the embezzlement of $25,000. He knew nothing of Cadwallader when he left. Both sailed on the same boat from New York on Christmas day in 1892, and they became quite well acquainted on the boat, though neither knew who the other really was, Cadwallader traveling under the name of A. R. Helm, and taking the captain for a seafaring man.

Talked of "Kiting Stock."

In one of their conversations on the boat the captain asked Cadwallader, or Helm, as he knew him then, what his business was, and Cadwallader told him he was a banker, and had been president of a bank in Philadelphia but had dropped it because the duties became too burdensome and troublesome. He said he had $30,000 or $40,000, some of which he had made in the banking business and some in the hotel business. He had also traveled in the northwest somewhat. He told how two young men could start a bank in the west without putting in a dollar of their own. All they would have to do would be to pay their hotel bills, behave well, and get good local subscribers for bank stock. They would then take those subscriptions and do business with Eastern banks, purchase United States bonds under the act of congress to start banks, and leave the bonds as collateral until they were needed by the United States treasury as deposits there.

Caught By His Own Story.

Then with the circulation, as soon as that could be issued, take that as collaterals until new circulation could be issued, when they could go on and carry on the business of banking with out the investment of a dollar.

When he met the American minister E. H. Conger, the latter showed him a cablegram from the state department saying that Cadwallader was wanted, describing the man and relating the charge against him of defrauding the Superior bank. This story was so similar to the one Helm had told him on the boat of what two young men might do, and the description fitted him so well that Capt. Henry made up his mind that Helm was none other than Cadwallader. He went to the hotel where he was stopping, but found that he was gone. The story of his trip into the interior after Shadbolt, and rediscovering Cadwallader at San Paulo, was very dramatic.

CITY MONEY POURED INTO MUD PUDDLES.

STREETS BUILT IN '93 ARE BAD AS EVER.

Commissioner Hanthorn Finds That Many of the Thoroughfares Which Were "Graveled" Last Season Need Repairs as Badly as Ever This Spring—Change Is Demanded.

New methods of making and repairing city streets are needed.

This will be apparent when Street Commissioner Hanthorn submits his report to the common council at its first regular meeting, showing what streets and sidewalks are out of repair.

The street commissioner is now surveying the streets and walks, and has completed the work in the First, Fourth and Fifth wards.

"There is much work this season," said the street commissioner this morning. "There are hundreds of sidewalks out of repair, and to tell the truth, the streets are in very bad shape."

This is the same old story.

Streets that were repaired, or which were thought to be repaired because large amounts of sand and gravel were spread over the surface last season are now in need of repairs as mach as ever. The material used is worthless, only serving as an excuse for spending the ward funds.

Starts on a Business Basis.

The season of road making is again at hand, but before the new council engages in the work, better road-building material should be found and plans adopted for building better and more durable streets. It is claimed that there is plenty of good material at hand and that a stone crusher and a street roller are the only things needed.

There is now a good balance in the ward funds, and with the usual annual appropriations for street work, there should be no excuse for continuing the old way of doing street work. It is claimed that even if good and durable roads do cost a little more to build, it would be economy to limit the work to fewer streets and do the work well.

The matter is left entirely with the aldermen, and tax payers will look to them for thorough consideration of the manner of doing street work.

GIFTED LADIES TO APPEAR.

Novel Entertainment To Be Given by the Y. M. C. A. Auxiliary.

A rare and novel entertainment will be given Tuesday evening. April 24, at the Court Street M. E. church under the auspices of the Women's Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. It will consist of a monologue entitled "Switzerland" and "Character Sketches," recited by Miss Charlotte Allen, assisted by Miss Dorothy Harrington. Miss Allen is an established favorite, having appeared for the past three seasons to crowded houses in London, New York and Philadelphia. Scattered through the entertainment are vivid descriptions of old cathedrals, quaint houses, grand scenery among the mountains, and upon the lakes, interspersed with catch recitations and songs. Appropriate costumes give color to the whole.

Since its organization the Woman's Auxiliary have worked untiringly for the benefit of the young men of the city. During the winter under their management a number of first class musical entertainments have been given to the public free, and now they wise to replenish their funds. The cause is a good one and as the tickets are only twenty-five cents they should have a crowded house.

HER BONNET.

When meeting bells began to toll,
And pious folk began to pass,
She deftly tied her bonnet on,
The little sober meeting lass,
All in her neat, white curtained room, before her tiny looking glass.

So nicely, round her lady cheeks,
She smoothed her bands of glossy hair
And innocently wondered if
Her bonnet did not make her fair.
Then sternly chid her foolish heart for harboring such fancies there.

So square she tied the satin strings,
And set the bows beneath her chin,
Then smiled to see how sweet she looked,
Then thought her vanity a sin,
And she must put such thoughts away before the sermon should begin.

But sitting 'neath the preached word,
Demurely in her father's pew,
She thought about her bonnet still—
Yes, all the parson's sermon through—
About its pretty bows and buds, which better than the text she knew.

Yet sitting there with peaceful face,
The reflex of her simple soul,
She looked to be a very saint—
And maybe was one, on the whole—
Only that her pretty bonnet kept away the aureole.
—Mary E. Wilkins in St. Louis Republic.

"BEWARE THE BOMB"

I was looking over the papers in the smoking room of a Paris cafe. My eye chanced to fall upon the "Echoes of the Stage" column, and I exclaimed aloud:

"At it again!"

A Frenchman sitting near me looked up in wonder at my petulant tone, so I hastened to explain, speaking fluently in very bad French:

"'Round the World In Eighty Days' is on the boards again. Will they ever have done with that absurd affair? They seem to think it a feat equal to the labors of Hercules."

The Frenchman looked shocked.

"Phileas Fogg was no better than a tortoise!" I cried boastfully. "I could do much better than he"——

"You can go around the world in less than 80 days?" asked my hearer slowly, and I answered in the same tone:

"I will go round the world in 70 days if you like."

"I take you up!" he cried.

"What do you bet?"

"Five thousand francs."

"Done," said I, and we exchanged cards and bows.

That was how it came about that I left Paris for the east on the 5th of January and stepped on board a transatlantic steamer from a New York pier on the 5th of March. So far I had not lost a minute, and now it only remained to be seen whether I should reach Havre in seven days, as the steamship company promised. It would be a close shave at best. A variety of detentions might occur. A slight accident to the machinery, and all would be lost.

I was nearly consumed with anxiety, but the ship acted up to her reputation, and on the 12th of March I stepped once more on to French soil.

I cast the ship a look of gratitude as she lay at the Havre pier letting off steam from her monstrous boiler.

Then I glanced at my watch. It was 4 in the afternoon. There was plenty time for me to dine at my ease and catch the 6:40 express. That would bring me to Paris at half past 11.

I took out my time table to make sure. As I ran my eye on the column of figures, an inspiration came to me.

"Where's the use of starting this evening?" I said to myself. "If I get there too early, it will look as if I were afraid of losing the wager. How much better to arrive at the very last second, with brilliancy and dash and dramatic effect, just as they do on the stage. That would be worthy of a genius! Now, here is a train which leaves Havre tomorrow morning at 6:55 and reaches the St. Lazare station at 11:30. The time fixed for me to meet the fellow at the office of The Semaphore just behind the Stock Exchange is before the first stroke of noon. I can easily go from St. Lazare to the Exchange in eight minutes in a cab, so there is nothing to prevent my appearing in the nick of time, just as Phileas Fogg did, after making every one's heart palpitate with suspense. That's settled. I shall not go on until tomorrow!"

Accordingly I went with my baggage to the best hotel, dined comfortably, took a walk through the town, smoking a cigar, and returned at 10 to go to bed.

"I must take the 6:55 train tomorrow morning," I said to the hotel proprietor. "Can you have me wakened in time?"

"We have a trustworthy man on purpose for that work," was the reply.

"That may be," said I skeptically; "but, after all, if you could let me have an alarm clock, I would feel more safe."

"I will lend you my own, although I assure you it is unnecessary," said the host, and accordingly I carried the tiny clock to my room, wound the alarm, set it at 6, stood it on a little table beside the bed and went to sleep with a quiet mind.

I was in a heavy slumber when I felt my arm being shaken violently.

"What's the matter?" I grumbled without opening my eyes.

"You have only just time, sir," said a voice in my ear.

"Time for what?" I asked, looking up drowsily.

"To catch your train," was the reply.

I sat up and glanced at the clock. It was half past 6!

Without another word, I leaped from the bed with such precipitation that I threw down the table with the little clock, dashed into my clothes, crowded my few belongings into my trunk frantically, flew down the stairs four at a time, sprang into the stage which was awaiting me, hardly drew breath until I was on the train.

Ouf! What a close squeeze! Two minutes more, and I would have lost my bet. However, all's well that ends well. I had my ticket; my trunk was on the train; the whistle sounded. I was off for Paris.

When I entered the St. Lazare station, the hands of the big clock pointed to half past 11. I hailed a cab and learned that there was time for me to take my trunk with me.

At that moment it appeared in the arms of two porters, who were carrying it with the greatest care. Confound them, how slow they were! What fool ever accused the railway companies of handling baggage roughly? I hastened toward the men, exclaiming:

"Be quick now!"

I had hardly uttered the words when a heavy hand was laid on my shoulder, and turning round to see the cause of such familiarity I found myself face to face with a gendarme.

"What is the matter with you?" I asked in amazement.

"Matter enough," replied the man in a jeering tone, tightening his hold. "You will see!"

Behind the gendarme came two railway officials. They stooped over my trunk solemnly, turned their heads as if listening, then stood up and exchanged a glance, which plainly said, "There is no doubt of it."

"They are crazy," I thought, but then a horrible conviction flashed through my brain.

Whether the men were sane or not, one thing was sure, it was 40 minutes past 11.

At all hazards I must make my escape. I shook myself free of the gendarme's grasp, and knocking over two or three people in my flight dashed madly away, but was stopped by two custom house officers, who seized me by the collar. I was dragged, protesting and gesticulating, back to where my trunk stood. There was evidently a mistake somewhere.

"Let me go," I cried, "let me go! And I swear I will come back in an hour"——

The gendarme's lips described a smile behind his thick mustache as he took possession of me again, this time with both hands.

"Come, now, don't try that," said one of the railway officials. "You may as well confess. You arrived from New York in great haste and under suspicious circumstances. Who are you? What have you in this trunk?"

"Clothes, nothing but my clothes," I answered, speaking worse French than usual in my agitation.

"No explosives?" insisted the official.

"Explosives! What for? I am not a pyrotechnist nor a chemist."

"Then what is the meaning of this strange noise? Inside your trunk there is a sound of machinery—in short, an infernal machine. Yesterday the London police arrested four American anarchists who had similar articles in their possession. You are known to be one of the gang."

I listened in speechless wonder to his words. I looked at my trunk, and my wonder increased to stupefaction as I heard a metallic ticktack inside. Suddenly there was a loud report, like a signal for an explosion.

"Beware the bomb!" shrieked some one. Officers and porters scattered in all directions, and even the gendarme moved away. I alone remained, like a hero. I tore open the trunk and pulled out the clothes in feverish haste. All at once I felt something hard inside a nightshirt, and the next moment drew out and exposed to view a little clock!

I had unknowingly packed up the hotel keeper's property, and it was striking the alarm six hours behind time.

"Confound the old turnip!" I cried, throwing it down furiously. I was answered by a loud peal of laughter from the spectators.

Then, putting my head down, like a wild boar that scents the hounds, I dashed toward the cab again and sprang in, shouting to the driver:

"I'll give you a louis if you get me to Place de la Bourse before noon."

Seven minutes and a half later the cab was tearing up to the Stock Exchange. I jumped out, flew up stairs to The Semaphore office, burst into the room like a hurricane and remarked in a stentorian tone:

"Here I am, gentlemen!"

The next instant the first stroke of noon sounded from the exchange clock. —Translated From the French For Romance.

Dyspepsia.

There are so many forms of dyspepsia that it is almost impossible to give the foods most suitable without a knowledge of each case. Dyspepsia usually is caused by one of two things—either defective muscular action or defective secretion of gastric juice. When it can be ascertained where the digestion is at fault, then nearly absolute directions can be given in regard to diet. In the majority of cases the articles given in the following list can be taken, but often certain ones of these disagree: Thin vegetable soups, raw oysters, poached or soft boiled eggs, good brown bread, gluten bread, boiled rice, oatmeal, spinach, cresses, celery, lettuce, string beans, asparagus, oranges, peaches, pears, baked apples and grapes. Granula, farinose and barley crystals are especially good forms of cereals for the dyspeptic. As much depends upon the preparation as upon the selection of the foods.—New York World.

An Old Time Rip Van Winkle.

The learned John Stow, known as the "London Antiquary," records the following: "April 27, 1546, was Tuesday in Easter week, and on that day William Foxley, potmaker of the mint, fell asleep, and he continued sleeping, and he could not be wakened with pinching, cramping or burning whatsoever, until the first day of term, which was 14 days and 15 nights after his sleep began. The causes of this extraordinary sleep could not be known, although the same were diligently searched for after by the king's physician and many other learned men. He lived for 40 years after he recovered." —St. Louis Republic.

What Sort Of a Piano Does The Gazette Give Away?

The Best that Money Can Buy.

Not an Upright Piano in the Market Excells the Shaw--- Few Equal It.

Piano Buyers often pin their faith blindly to certain makes of Pianos famed in the Concert Rooms. Experts tell us, however, that the upright pianos sent out by certain firms making a Specialty of Concert Grands, are far Inferior to the Shaw. In such establishments the "grand" gets all the care and watchfulness and skill--- the "uprights" are turned out like so many wash tubs.

This isn't true of Shaws.

Nothing but uprights and only one grade of them are made in the big Erie, Pa., factory. The foremen of the three leading departments are three of the best men, one from Steinway's, one from Knabe's and one from Chickering's factory.

THE RACING SEASON AND ITS GOSSIP.

ITS DAWN BRINGS FORTH SOME NEW MATERIAL.

W. B. Gilpin, the Well-Known Owner and Trainer, Writes About Racers Past, Present and Future—Senator Grady and Domino.

NOW THAT THE racing season of 1894 is dawning, our hopes are naturally buoyant, and we are inclined to view turf matters with a somewhat roseate vision. Let us only hope that the outcome will fulfill our expectations. So far as the main factors in the sport are concerned—the horses—I believe firmly we shall not be disappointed, True, we have not many good old horses to play a prominent part, for there are now few cups or races of any value to keep them in training, but of 4-year-olds we have a goodly collection.

Last year, as 3-year-olds, they were generally characterized as a shockingly poor lot, but in this I hardly coincide. I speak feelingly, perhaps, but

W. B. GILPIN.

I certainly opine that Sir Walter, Ajax and Sport—only three of a dozen good ones—were fitting representatives of their age in any year. The whole batch are reported as having wintered well, so that we should see some highly interesting racing among them,

Proceeding to the three-year-olds, most people are agreed that last year's showing of two-year-olds was above the average. Domino held a record second only to that of Tremont. Dobbins, despite a particularly hard season of nearly thirty races, showed of what sterling metal he was composed when he ran his memorable dead heat match race with Domino, at the end of the season.

There was, too, another colt, Senator Grady, which must be spoken of as a virtually unknown quantity, since he never met Domino, and yet many good judges maintain that he was his peer, and the way in which he won all of his races, beating fields of the highest class, certainly gives color to the assertion.

With so large a number of colts showing well in the past season we may expect to see many improve into first-class three-year-olds, and, as a result, some hotly contested stakes. What is true of the colts can hardly be said of the fillies; indeed the good ones of the year can be readily numbered on the fingers of one hand.

Why it is that fillies are so few on the turf in this country, as compared with other countries, it is hard to say. Possibly it may be that their owners find breeding a more profitable investment than racing them.

Certainly the fact remains that high class fillies on the turf are few, and those who can hold their own at sex allowance with the colts are noticeable only by their absence.

With regard to the newly formed Jockey club and their future, both owners and trainers are expecting great things.

The formation of the board of control was essentially a step in the right direction, and their influence for good has been felt much, though they were maligned. They were blamed for being autocratic, but it must be remembered that they had an unruly pack to govern, a pack made up of many good men, with a large admixture of would-be-if-you-didn't-watch-me bad men.

To make the machinery of the turf run smoothly was no idle task, and they certainly deserve the thanks of the racing fraternity on their retirement.

The men now selected as members of the Jockey club are worthy, fair minded sportsmen, and it behooves all interested in the welfare of the turf to uphold their authority. I, for one, shall hope for some radical reforms under its regime.

W. B. Gilpin.

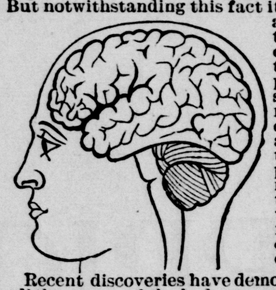
MYSTERIES!

The Nervous System the Seat of Life and Mind. Recent Wonderful Discoveries.

No mystery has ever compared with that of human life. It has been the leading subject of professional research and study in all ages. But notwithstanding this fact it is not generally known that the seat of life is located in the upper part of the spinal cord, near the base of the brain, and so sensitive is this portion of the nervous system that even the prick of a needle will cause instant death.



Recent discoveries have demonstrated that all the organs of the body are under the control of the nerve centers, located in or near the base of the brain, and that when these are deranged the organs which they supply with nerve fluid are also deranged. When it is remembered that a serious injury to the spinal cord will cause paralysis of the body below the injured point, because the nerve force is prevented by the injury from reaching the paralyzed portion, it will be understood how the derangement of the nerve centers will cause the derangement of the various organs which they supply with nerve force.

Two-thirds of chronic diseases are due to the imperfect action of the nerve centers at the base of the brain, not from a derangement primarily originating in the organ itself. The great mistake of physicians in treating these diseases is that they treat the organ rather than the nerve centers which are the cause of the trouble.

DR. FRANKLIN MILES, the celebrated specialist, has profoundly studied this subject for over 20 years, and has made many important discoveries in connection with it, chief among them being the facts contained in the above statement, and that the ordinary methods of treatment are wrong. All headache, dizziness, dullness, confusion, pressure, blues, mania, melancholy, insanity, epilepsy, St. Vitus dance, etc., are nervous diseases no matter how caused. The wonderful success of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine is due to the fact that it is based on the foregoing principle.

DR. MILES' RESTORATIVE NERVINE is sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent direct by DR. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles for $5, express prepaid. It contains neither opiates nor dangerous drugs.

AN ORDINANCE granting to the Wisconsin Automatic Telephone Company the right to construct, maintain and operate a telephone system in and upon the streets of the city of Janesville.

The mayor and the common council of the city of Janesville do ordain as follows:

SECTION 1. The Wisconsin Automatic Telephone Company, its successors and assigns are hereby granted the right to erect and maintain in, along and upon the streets and alleys of the city of Janesville, such poles of wood, iron or other suitable material, and such wires as may be necessary for a system of telephones and a telephone exchange in said city of Janesville, subject, however, to all of the conditions and provisions of an ordinance, entitled, "an ordinance to regulate the stringing of wires in the city of Janesville," passed October 10th, 1892.

SECTION 2. In consideration of this grant, the said city of Janesville shall have the right to place and string on the poles of said telephone, the fire alarm and police wires of said city. The said telephone company shall place on each of its poles, at least twenty-one inches above all cross-arms, a four pin cross arm with suitable and proper glass insulators for the fire and police wires of said city. If the said city shall place its fire alarm and police wires upon the poles of said telephone company as above provided, said wires shall be so placed as not to in any way obstruct or interfere with the use of the wires of said telephone company and such fire alarm and police wires shall be maintained and kept in repair by said city so long as such wires are kept on the poles of said Telephone Company.

SECTION 3. This ordinance shall be of no force or effect unless the said Telephone Company shall within sixty days after the passage thereof file with the city clerk of said city its written acceptance of the same. And this ordinance shall cease and be of no effect after the expiration of one year from the passage hereof if the said Wisconsin Automatic Telephone Company shall not before the expiration of said year establish and put in operation a Telephone Exchange in said City."

SECTION 4. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication, which publication shall be for three successive days.

Passed April 16 A. D. 1891.

GEORGE H. BATES,
City Clerk. Approved.
JOHN THOROUGHGOOD,
Mayor.

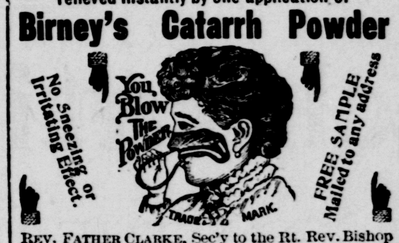
Catarrh AND COLD IN THE HEAD

relieved instantly by one application of

Birney's Catarrh Powder



REV. FATHER CLARKE, Sec'y to the Rt. Rev. Bishop of Columbus, Ohio, writes;

GENTLEMEN:—I cannot say enough for your Powder. It has cured me of an aggravated attack of catarrh when nothing else could help me. Am delighted with it. All my friends to whom I administered samples are quite enthusiastic over it. The good sisters speak most encouragingly of their use of it in the Hospital under their care. I will do anything to speak a good word for the remedy to help others who are suffering.

M. E. FERGUSON, Custodian U. S. Appraiser's Stores, Chicago, writes:

GENTLEMEN:—Being almost entirely deaf for a number of years past and getting no relief from many so-called cures which I tried, was induced by a friend to try Dr. Birney's Catarrhal Powder for my deafness. Have recovered my hearing entirely, so that I ear now hear a watch tick plainly, it being held 18 inches from my ear. I look upon it as a positive cure for deafness and have recommended its use to many of my friends and can say I have never heard of a case where it has failed to relieve.
